

Paying Tuition and Campus Fees

This guide provides a brief overview of paying fees associated with enrollment.

When should I pay my fees?

Charges will be applied to your account after you enroll. It may take a couple of days for the charges to post. CSUF will not send an invoice. Check the Financial Account section of your portal to view your balance. View an overview of important payment dates and deadlines.

How can I pay my fees?

You can make payments online or through the mail.

To make an online payment, log in to your portal to access your Student Homepage. Then, navigate to the Financial Account tile and click the Make a Payment link.

For mail payments, send a personal check, cashier's check, money order, or traveler's check payable to CSUF or CSU Fullerton to Student Business Service's mailing address.

In-person payments are currently unavailable.

 You can also enroll in the Tuition Installment Payment Plan to make payments in monthly installments. View more information on the Tuition Installment Payment Plan.
